Tex's owner John Purdie had this to say about him. "I have been fortunate enough to own, ride and show some really great horses. I believe Tex is the best yet. He is a pleasure to be around at all times; whether at a show, in the barn or on his back. He has remained sound mentally and physically. I am looking forward to his foals being as good or better that he is."

Harvey Stevens is Tex's trainer and couldn't say enough good things about him. "Tex is truly one of a kind horse. He is the best son of Smart Chic Olena I have ever ridden. The first day I climbed aboard he was all business, and has never said no. They say every trainer gets one great horse in their lifetime. I have been blessed in mine by having two great horses. Tex was one horse you better show him what you want the first time. Because he never forgot what you showed him. A horse with a ton of
